OFFICE OF THE PRIVATE SECRETARY

SECTION

May it please your Highness,

The humble petition of Panchaksharappa of Tirukappanavaru Mutt humbly showeth:-

(1) That your humble petitioner had complained against the Sub-Assistant Surgeon of Davanagere about his cheating Government with false Travelling allowance bills;

To the Dewan
Sec.
30/9/12

(2) That the Senior Surgeon held a perfunctory enquiry and has been trying out of other considerations to save that officer without dealing on the merits of the case;

(3) That a medical officer drawing more than Rs.150/ a month should be encouraged to prepare false bills and cheat - Government, though he is allowed to get a lucrative private practice, and that he should be left scot-free, is setting a bad example to other officers under your Highness's Government;

(4) That the Senior Surgeon had misunderstood the gravity of the case and has been showing undeserved leniency - unfit of a good administrative Head of the Department;

(5) That the complainants ought to have been - - punished if their complaint was false, or the guilty should have been properly dealt with;

(6) That the fraud committed by the Sub-Assistant Surgeon has been clearly proved and that in the interests of - decipline and as a warning to others justice ought to have been meted out;

(7) As your petitioner learns that a meagre report has been submitted to Government without bringing forth the truth of the matter and as this officer has been cheating Government systematically, the petitioner begs that your Highness will kindly call for the records and deal out even handed justice.

I beg to remain,
Your Highness's humble subject,

SECTION: Med

Respected Sir,

You are aware of how the Sub-Assistant Surgeon of Davangere prepares and submits false Travelling allowance bills and has been cheating Government month after month for large sums of money. It is a matter for extreme regret that the Senior Surgeon did not hold a fair enquiry, and is bent upon saving the man. As the Head of the administration it is ones duty to punish the misdoings of the officials of the Department. Systematic fraud was being committed and this was ordinarily incapable of detection, yet when such a thing has been brought to light, the Senior Surgeon tries to glide over the affair with an easy conscience. If an officer were to prepare false bills and cheat Government, it is highly probable that he will not shirk even to give a false certificate in a murder case. Now, it remains to be considered how such officers can be retained in service. As you love justice and as well-paid servants are expected to be honest at least as regards Government money, it is hoped that your honor will not be deceived by the scratch report like the one the Senior Surgeon has recently submitted, but will insist upon dealing out a just punishment whatever you may deem fit.

I beg to remain,

Respected Sir,
Your most humble servant,

Davangere

Y Med 59-1288 : 5

This is a complaint against Mr. C. Rajagopal, Assistant Surgeon, Davangere by Pundit Chandrasekhara Rao of that place.

The matter forming the ground for complaint namely that the Assistant Surgeon drew Travelling Allowance for journeys not actually undertaken was investigated into by the Senior Surgeon, under the orders of the late Dewan. The papers came up before the present Dewan some time back and at the suggestion of the Second Councillor further datails have been called for and the explanations of the Compounder and the Sanitary Inspector are awaited.

Fresh allegations contained in the present petition in regard to which the petitioner seeks redress are:--

(i) Mr. Royalu Chetty who is a friend of the Assistant Surgeon, summoned petitioner before him on the 17th instant, and after rebuking him for complaining against a Government Officer, confronted him with certain questions and took petitioner's signature to some paper the contents of which the petitioner does not at all know.

(ii) Police Inspector Nagesa Rao is subjecting petitioner to all sorts of intimidation, is threatening to prosecute him for petitioning against the Asst. Surgeon and is asking petitioner to leave the country on pain of being incarcerated in jail if he disobeyed' the mandate.
